The officer stopped the driver of the vehicle and upon contact noticed obvious signs of alcohol intoxication. The investigation determined the suspect was driving under the influence and the suspect was arrested. The passenger in the vehicle was also arrested for being drunk in public.

Suspicious Subject / Stolen Property / Warrants – One Suspect Arrested

January 1 at 3:51 a.m., a resident in the 300 block of Heather Heights called to report a male subject attempting to gain access into her backyard. The subject was wearing all black with a large dark jacket. The resident turned on her yard lights and scared the subject away. Officers searched the area but did not locate the subject. The officers did locate a bag on the resident's property that contained burglary tools.

At 11:32 a.m., officers responded back to the same residence regarding a suspicious subject. The subject knocked on the resident's front door and asked for his tools back, he told the resident he was a neighbor from a nearby street. The subject became upset when the resident told the subject that the police had his tools. The subject quickly left and got into a white Toyota Yaris driven by a female subject and they headed toward Scenic. Officers located the vehicle and female driver in the 500 block of W. Lime. The investigation revealed the female subject had warrants and she was arrested. While fleeing the area, the male subject dropped a backpack he was carrying. The backpack appeared to have stolen property inside. The investigation is continuing.
