PROCLAMATION

City of Monrovia

WHEREAS, the City of Monrovia recognizes that strength is derived from its residents, and it strives to bring awareness, recognition and celebration of the diversity among us, to safeguard the freedom and values for which our city stands, and the unity of our community and residents; and

WHEREAS, our proud history has been achieved through the contributions of diverse fabric of races, ethnicities and cultures; and we are committed to maintaining mutual respect, social justice, and equality as fundamental aspects of our community; and

WHEREAS, Race Unity Day was started by the Baha'i National Spiritual Assembly in 1957 as an observance to promote racial harmony and understanding; and

WHEREAS, we dedicate this day as a symbol of solidarity, recognizing the variety of backgrounds, races, genders, sexual orientations, ages, religions, as well as the numerous cultural perspectives, innovations, and contributions by ALL represented within our great city, and encourage everyone to honor, recognize, and embrace diversity throughout our workplaces, our schools, our community, and our country; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Becky Shevlin, Mayor of the City of Monrovia, along with the entire City Council, do hereby proclaim Saturday, June 10, 2023, as in the City of Monrovia and encourage all residents and community members to explore, celebrate and embrace those who have contributed to the richness of our City, our community, and our nation.
