Membership on the Teen Advisory Board (TAB) is open to any teen in 6th through 12th grades.

Why join?

- * Help create, plan, and organize events for teens
- * Volunteer to help with Library and City-wide events for all ages
- * Have a voice in what services and materials you want at the Library
- * Gain valuable experience working with Library staff, the public, and your peers

Requirements

- * Attend a TAB Orientation (new members only)
- * Attend at least 4 TAB Meetings per TAB Year (Sept. – Aug.)
- * Volunteer 10 hours per TAB Year (Sept. – Aug.)
- * Attend two TAB/teen events per TAB Year (Sept. – Aug.)

MEMBERSHIP: You are a member when you turn in your application and receive a welcome email from the Teen Librarian. Your welcome email will contain information about TAB, upcoming meeting dates, and your next steps as a new TAB member. As a new member you are required to attend one of the orientations held quarterly. Orientations are held in September, December, March, and June. The Library accepts applications all year long and applications are active for the current TAB Year, which runs September through August. Members will need to reapply the following September to remain active.

MEETINGS: Meetings are held on the first available Monday of every month at 5pm in the Library Community Room.
