

Explorer Honor Guard

The Monrovia Police Department Explorer Honor Guard has been asked to present the colors at numerous community events, including the Monrovia Day Parade, City Council Salute to Service for our servicemen and women, and the Mayor's Prayer Breakfast. The Explorer Honor Guard is regarded as one of the finest explorer honor guards in the nation. The Explorer Honor Guard is something each of the explorers in the Post train to participate in.

Compete with Other Explorers

Explorers train and compete in a variety of competitions. Some of the competitions include SWAT team and tactical police scenarios. Other competitions deal with patrol officer tactics such as traffic stops and handling calls for police service. The Monrovia Police Department Explorer Post competes every year in Chandler Arizona at an explorer tactical team competition.

Ride Along with a Police Officer

Explorers who have completed an Explorer Police Academy and have attended the regularly scheduled Post meetings have the opportunity to ride along with a police officer once a month. On a ride-a-long, explorers are able to learn about police work first hand by actually observing what police officers do on the job.

Serve the Community

Explorers serve the community by working at various events in the City. They provide traffic control at parades, security at some civic functions, and assist other charitable organizations that provide services to the community.
